

I do not feel I should subsidize telemarketers doing business by having them disturb my privacy on my telephone I pay for. Telemarketers should NOT have the right to bother me on the phone any more than they would have the right to enter my home and hand me advertising material.